Doc Wayne @ The Perry

What is Doc Wayne?

Sports-based therapy to strengthen social emotional skills and build healthier, more resilient communities through youth mental health.

Therapeutic Recess

There is no better way to get to know young people than through play. Doc Wayne's Therapeutic Recess is an opt-in program for students that provides structure, programming, and oversight during the school day, giving clinicians an opportunity to build relationships with students and assess social-emotional skills.

Chalk Talk

Doc Wayne's flagship program in Boston called Chalk Talk® destigmatizes mental health.

- Offered on a weekly basis in school systems and other youth-serving organizations
- Our team leads weekly sessions with students, ages 5-18, designed to support them as they process and persevere through adversity.
- We believe that by supporting the Whole Child — on the field and off — we can develop more resilient learners and leaders.

Boston Music Project @ The Perry
